

August 26 and 27

7:00 pm

Indiana Medical History
Museum

Then There Is No Need to Speak

A one-woman theatrical performance.

Adapted by Thomas Hummel

Directed by Terri Bourus

Starring Denise Jaeckel

Historical commentary by Kathleen Brian

Presented by IUPUI's Medical Humanities and Health Studies
Program, the Indiana Medical History
Museum, and Discover Near West
Indys, with funding support from IU's
New Frontiers Program, the IUPUI Arts
& Humanities Institute, Indiana
Humanities, and the Arts Council of Indianapolis.

Based on the 1886 memoir From Under the Cloud by Anna Agnew, a former patient at the Indiana
Hospital for the Insane

$5 | Free for students

Advance registration required
www.imhm.org

IUPUI
ARTS &
HUMANITIES
INSTITUTE